Preface

This index includes the name of every person mentioned in that portion of Goodspeed's 1896 history of Central Arkansas devoted to Faulkner County. This original work has long been out of print and is a valuable collectors' item. Copies may be consulted, however, in a number of college and public libraries in Arkansas.

The Faulkner County Historical Society has published a reprint of this history in two sections in its quarterly, Faulkner Facts and Fiddlings; the issues of Fall 1964 and Spring 1967, the former selling at $1.25 and the latter at $2.00. The address is Post Office Box 731, Conway, Ark., 72032.

The names indexed in this publication include not only the family name of the Faulkner County people mentioned by Goodspeed, but, in most cases, their ancestors and children, a total of well over 800 names.

I am greatly indebted to Misses Sandra Hurst and Betty Weaver for the painstaking research that made this index possible.

As long as the small supply lasts, copies of this publication are available from the undersigned at $2.00 each, postpaid.
